HEALING OUR TIRED HEART Weekend Retreat

Friday, August 28 – Sunday, August 30 Registration: 7:00 p.m. (E. Time)

Caregivers, parents, those in helping professions and anyone overworking often get edgy, sick and even die prematurely because of “compassion fatigue”. When tired, we can become long on negativity and short on compassion because we are giving more than we are receiving. If you are feeling tired, a bit negative, burdened or wishing you could change something to get new life, you might be giving too much. It is past the time to come and rest, receive and recover life as promised. “Come to me all you who are heavily burdened and you will find rest for your soul.”

Presenter for both one day and weekend retreat: Fr. Matt Linn, S.J. has focused on integrating physical, emotional and spiritual healing. He is a member of the Association of Christian Therapists with advanced graduate degrees in sociology, anthropology, spirituality and theology. Since 1970, he has given courses and retreats in over 60 countries from U. S. to Australia. Ordained in 1973, he currently lives in a Jesuit community in Minneapolis where he trains spiritual directors at Sacred Ground.

He also serves on the editorial board of Presence: An International Journal of Spiritual Direction. Matt, Dennis and Sheila Linn have written 22 books, translated in over 20 languages.

Fee: $180.00 (includes a $40.00 non-refundable deposit)
